STRATHCONA AND MOUNT ROYAL, DONALD ALEXANDER SMITH, BARON

Donald Alexander Smith was an outstanding Canadian, who showed ability in fur trading, railway building, and politics.

Born in 1820 in Forres, Scotland, Smith joined the Hudson's Bay Company at the age of 18. He served in the Esquimaux Bay district on the coast of Labrador, where he developed trade in fish and furs, raised cattle, and built roads. In 1874 he was appointed Land Commissioner for Hudson's Bay Company, and in 1889 he became governor.

When Manitoba became a province, Donald Smith was offered the position of Lieutenant-Governor of the new province, but he declined this honour.

Smith entered politics as a Conservative. He sat as a member of Parliament for over twenty years, representing Winnipeg, Selkirk, and Montreal West respectively. He retired from politics upon being appointed Canadian High Commissioner in London. Smith held that position and governor of Hudson's Bay Company into his 94th year.

At the age of sixty, Donald Smith became the chief promoter of the Canadian Pacific Railway. Smith was not a member of the syndicate formed to build the railway, but he risked his personal fortune to keep the venture afloat. Because of his active support during the construction, Smith was accorded the honour of driving the last spike, on the completion of the railway in 1885.

Donald Smith spent his money on worth-while projects. He was a patron of music and art. He gave generously to McGill University and the Royal Victoria Hospital in Montreal. Smith founded the Royal Victoria College at McGill for the higher education of women. During the South African War, he equipped and maintained Lord Strathcona's Horse, a unit of mounted rifles.

For his service in many fields Smith received several honours and degrees. He was made Lord Strathcona and a member of the House of Lords in England. In 1897 he was raised to peerage as Baron Strathcona and Mount Royal.

Lord Strathcona died in 1914 in London, England. Because of his many endeavours and generous financing, Donald Smith was important in the building of our nation Canada.

IN APPRECIATION

We should like to give our sincere thanks to all those who have made this the 29th edition of the Tricolor possible:

To our advisors, Miss Clark, Mr. Nelson, Mr. Smith, whose patience and constant guidance averted numerous possible difficulties.

To the office secretaries, Mrs. Campbell, Mrs. Fraser, Mrs. Mitchell, Mrs. Svarich, Mrs. Wall, Mrs. Walters, for their co-operation and tolerance;

To the various business concerns whose contributions helped make this centennial edition possible;

And last but surely not least to the entire Tricolor staff for their devotion and diligence both as individuals and as committees.

We are grateful to each and every one.

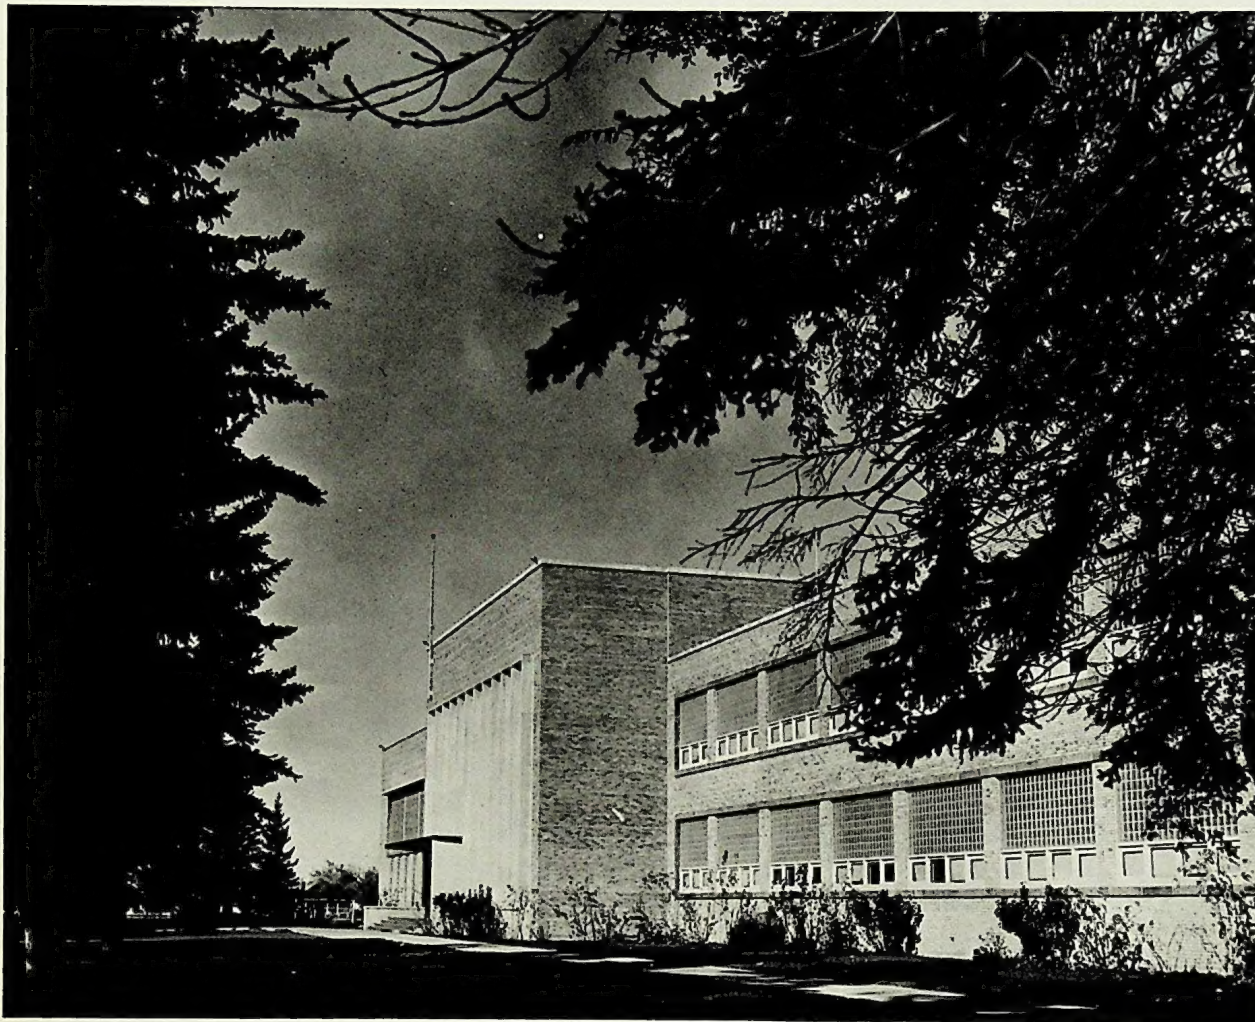

The Editors

OUR FOSTER CHILD

This is the first year that the students of Strathcona have supported Chu Kong Sun under the Foster Parents' Plan. Chu, an elementary student, lives in Hong Kong.

The PLAN has provided clothing, school tuition, and medical aids for Chu.

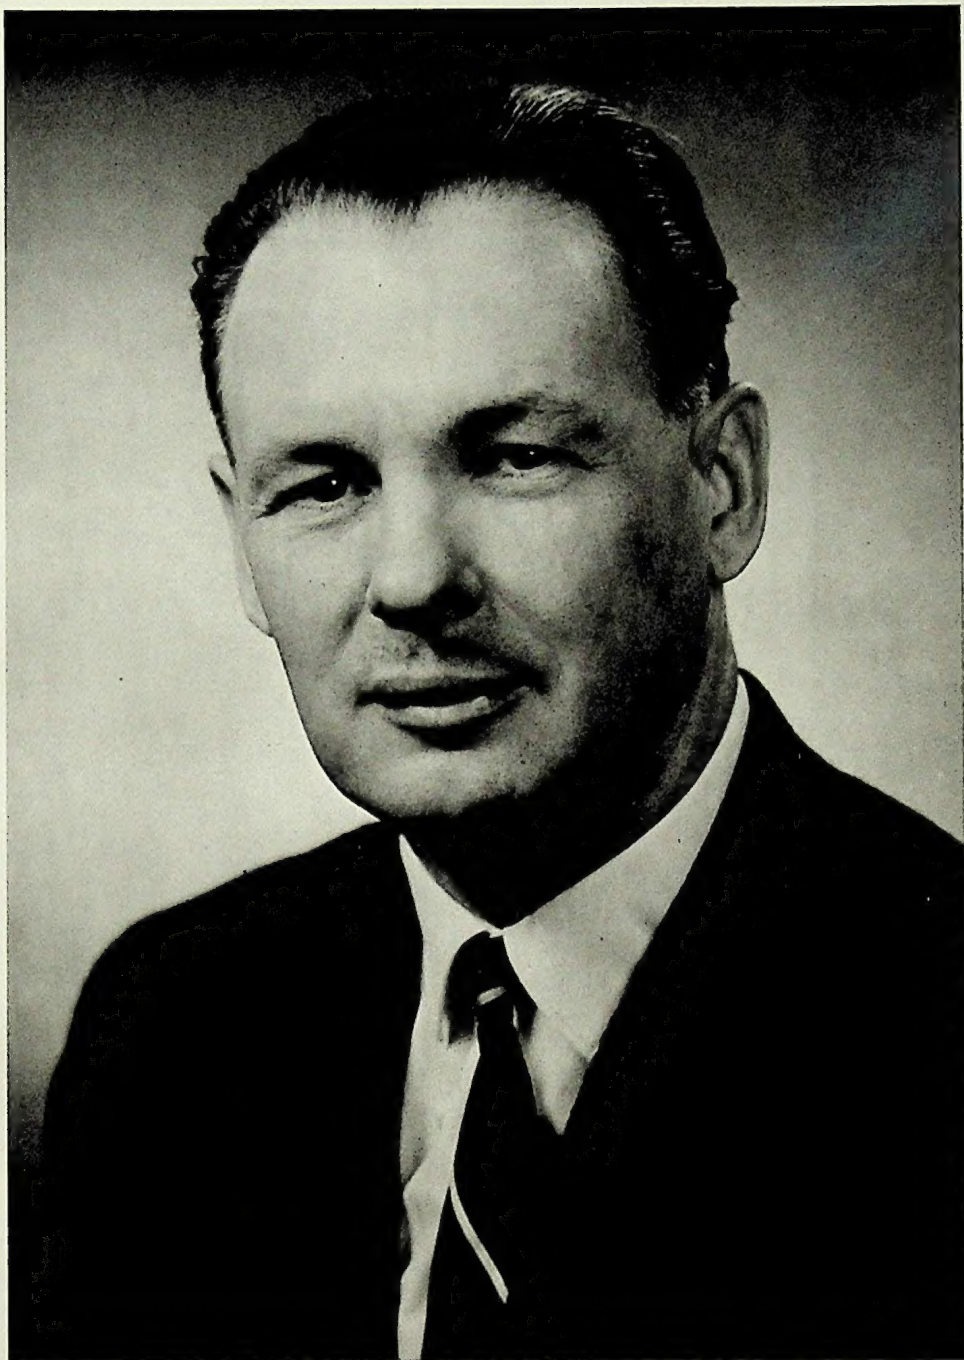

In his letters Chu is very grateful for this assistance. We hope that we will be able to continue this worthwhile project:

President's Message

Ian Walker
President of the Students' Union

The end of another year has come to Strathcona Composite High School. To some students it is another step forward in their education; to others it is the final plateau. To those remaining and to those leaving I offer my best wishes for the future. I hope that in the coming years you will look back with fondness upon your years at Scona.

This year has brought with it successes in all fields of endeavour. Academically, the students of Strathcona ranked second to none. Our athletic teams have gained respect and admiration for their excellent showings. These successes and many more could not have been possible if it were not for the unfailing energy of the students and staff. I would like to express my appreciation to all those who worked so hard to make this year a success.

My special thanks are extended to Mr. Stratte and Mr. Wilson, the Students' Union Advisors, for their continuous help and patient guidance. Also my appreciation is extended to the Students' Union Executive and the Room Representatives—it was a pleasure working with you this year and thanks for making the year a success.

Before closing I would like to wish each and every one of the students of Strathcona the best of luck in the future.

Editorial

It seems like just yesterday that we as lowly grade 10's entered Scona's hallowed halls only to be lost in the maze of corridors. Now we've reached the pinnacle of our high school career; but even now, our education is not completed. For some, this is merely a landing before a university career; for others, an end to all formal education.

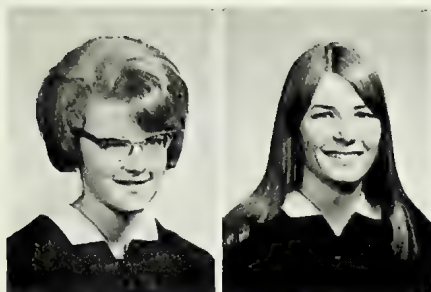

And yet, our years at Scona will never be forgotten. The friends we have made, and the memorable experiences (as well as those better left forgotten) have all added to our appreciation and enjoyment of this fine school, with its many fine teachers and students. It is with nostalgia that we look back, but with anticipation that we look forward to what lies ahead—more friends to be made and more experiences to be met.

The year has drawn to a close. To all you who will be returning and to those who will be coming for the first time, we pass the torch. Bear it proudly, always doing honour to Scona, our Alma Mater.

Clubs

ACTIVITIES BOARD – Plans all activities within the school, and all the major dances.

ART CLUB – The Art Club fills many orders for posters and sets up many artistic and fascinating displays.

BADMINTON CLUB – The aim of the Badminton Club is to train teams for the inter-school games through practice and round robins.

BLOTTER – The Blotter is Scona's illustrious newspaper, crying out the news and views of Scona Students.

CHESS AND CHECKERS CLUB – The cry "Checkmate" will often be heard at the noon-hour meeting of this club.

GIRLS' CHORUS – On walking past Room 100 any Thursday noon, you will hear sweet melodies coming from the chorus, under the direction of Mrs. Brine.

ELECTRONICS CLUB – Available to the Electronics Club is a wide variety of topics, from transistor radios to rockets.

GYMNASTICS CLUB – The members of this club spend their time swinging on parallel bars or trampolining.

I.S.C.F. – This club promotes Christian fellowship, through holding discussions and debates.

LIBRARY CLUB – Though often not appreciated, this club works hard, morning, noon, and after school.

MIXED CURLING – One of Scona's most popular clubs, the Mixed Curling boasts of the highest enrollment, all engaged in what the name implies.

MODELLING CLUB – Here the girls are trained in the basics of modelling, and are often visited by interesting speakers.

P.S.S.C. – Although small in membership, this club carries on lively and interesting debates and discussions on many topics.

PEP BAND – This club helps to bolster school spirit with their music at all football and basketball games.

PHOTOGRAPHY – This group of camera fans do strange things all in the line of duty to obtain their many fine pictures.

PUBLICITY BOARD – This group is in charge of the publicity of all school events; all posters in the school must meet with their approval.

SCIENCE CLUB – Some of the members of this group, whose interests range from the simple experiments to splitting the atom, will some day become great scientists.

SWIM CLUB – Loud splashing may be heard every noon hour in the swimming pool, as the Swim Club provides instruction in swimming and water safety for all Scona students.

TABLE TENNIS CLUB – This active club is busy every noon hour with their favorite pastime – batting a little white ball around on a big green table.

TRICOLOR – Thanks to this hard-working group of students, Scona's Yearbook is printed for the enjoyment of all.

Music

One of Scona's busiest and most hardworking groups is the Senior Orchestra. As well as rehearsing during music classes, its fifty-odd members give up many noon hours and spare time in order to practice, or to give concerts.

One endeavour of the orchestra was a trip to Jasper to play three concerts. They have also played for many school ceremonies, including the Centennial Kick Off on October 10, and at the Graduation Exercises.

Not lacking in Christmas spirit, the senior orchestra performed at the Christmas Concert, and played for two carol sings, one at Scona and one at King Edward Junior High.

On February 28 and 29 they played at Concert Canadiana, in which they played music composed by Canadian composers. In April they played at the High School Night of Music and they did very well in the Kiwanis Music Festival.

The success of the Senior Orchestra has been due, not only to the members themselves, but to their able conductress, Mrs. Brine.

JIM: Do you know Glenn?
RICK: Yes, I used to sleep with him.
JIM: Roommates?
RICK: No, classmates!

RENE: Dad, you're a lucky man!
DAD: Why's that?
RENE: You won't have to buy any new school books this year because I'm taking all the same courses over again.

UNDERTAKER: One who undertakes grave matters, and tells dead jokes.
A HAM: The meat-head whose jokes are all smoked out.
A DRIP: Let's faucet—it's a person who is all wet.

Those who go to college and never get out are called "Professors."

College bred is a four year loaf made with father's dough.

A miss in the car is worth two in the engine.

They glanced at one another
In a crowded sub-way train,
Over the swaying heads he smiled,
Her eyes met his again.

Mr. White is a handsome, witty, intelligent, unassuming fellow. I know, he told me.

The skin you'd love to touch—skinflint.

His shirt and tie were faultless,
Her teeth had a brilliant gleam
For he was an ad for collars,
And she for dental cream!

MARGARET: Doug's
mustache makes me laugh.
CONNIE: Yes, it tickles me too!

POLICEMAN: "Didn't you hear me call you to stop?"
BOB: "I didn't know it was you. I thought it was someone I had run over.

MOTHER: Beatrice, I'm wondering about that young man that comes to see you every evening. What are his intentions?
BEATRICE: I don't know, Mother; he keeps me in the dark all the time.

MISS CLARK: An anecdote is a tale. Now Glenn, use it in a sentence.
GLENN: I tied a tin can to the dog's anecdote.

MR. GREEN: "Your report should have been written in such a manner that even the most ignorant person could understand it."
DONNA R.: Yes sir. What part don't you understand?

MR. GORGICHUK: Why is the line opposite the right angle in a right-angled triangle?
LIZ: The hippopotamus.

PROPAGANDA: Bologna used as food for thought.

A MAN: A worm which grows up, wiggles around for a while, and then gets snatched up by some spring chicken.

DISARMAMENT: Amputation.

JAY: How long can a person live without brains?
BOB: I don't know. How old are you?

PAUL: What's grey and lumpy?
BRIAN: Cream of elephant soup!

FAIR MAID: Oh, sir, what kind of an officer are you?
OFFICER: I'm a naval surgeon.
FAIR MAID: Goodness, you doctors do specialize!

LANDLADY: Why did you put your tea on the chair?
BOARDER: It was so weak I thought it had better sit down.

SCHOOL SPIRIT

Behind the Scenes

BOB COAMBS, BILL LUST, DOUG RAULT, DANNY SCHNEIDER, MORRIE EAMAN

Our sound and lighting experts spend numerous hours working to build the right atmosphere for the numerous back-stage activities.

LOIS RITCHIE AND MARNIE WIBER

Our chronic clock-watchers counted the seconds while the Lords swept to victory after victory.

PEGGY COWLES

This prominent member of the Publicity Board has been a major promoter of our various school activities and has kept our bulletin board thriving.

BRUCE CAMERON

Our conscientious coach of the Swim Team has spent many hours supplying the inspiration which has driven the swim team to triumph!

BEV PHOENIX, DONNA RICHARDS

This year the checkbooth was graced with a pretty blonde and brunette who spent many noon hours selling everything but kisses.

BEATE DEHNKE, JOHN ARLETTE

Many thanks to these hard workers who made this year's house leagues a big success.

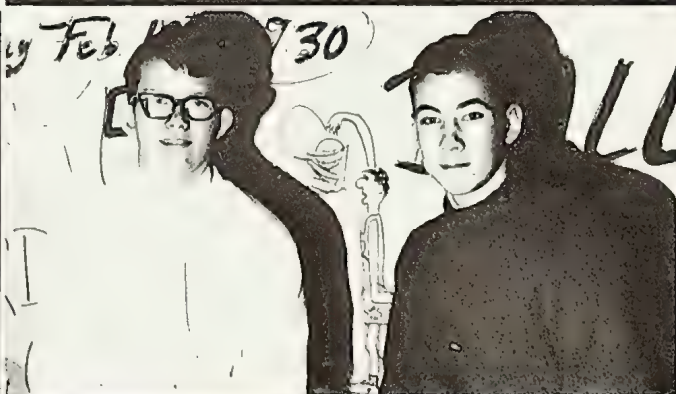

GRAEME WALKER, BRUCE WINSHIP, JIM MATHESON

No one went dry this year at any of the activities thanks to these boys' quick refreshment service.

BILL AVISON, HARRY VENN

Behind every great team there are great managers. These boys worked hard to help out teams win.

BARBARA BICKNELL, BARRY EDGAR, ANDY HYSLOP, STEPHANIE GRAEFE

These talented folk donated their time to make posters for Scona's many activities.

Frosh Dance

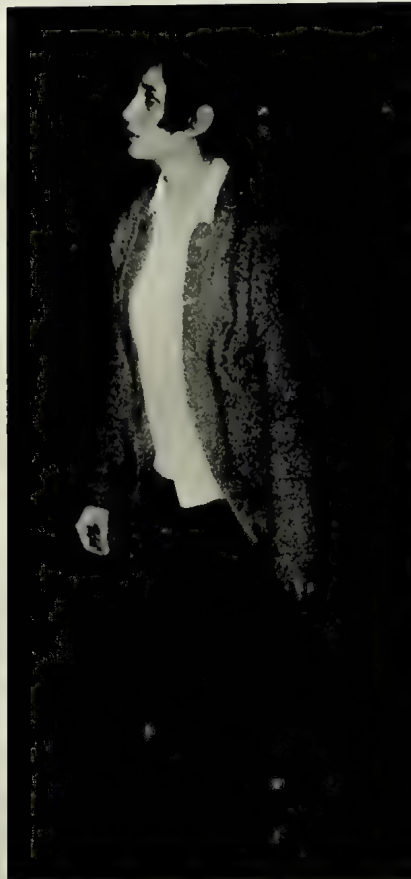

What a colossal triumph to a terrifying week—for the Frosh, that is. As is their annual preoccupation, the Frosh were to be seen scurrying throughout Scona's hallowed halls in a futile effort to elude the ever-present seniors. Their fiendish crimes and rapid capture led to their equally fiendish trials and punishments (decided by a most impartial judge and jury). The finale to this fun-filled week was a dance with music provided by the Tyme Five.

Christmas Dance

Exams were over! Christmas was but a week away and in the gym of Scona High School, the loyal Sconaites bounced and jangled with the rafters to the music presented by The Return. Both staff members and the students participated.

Muk-Luk Dance

Phew! The damp Muk-Luks worn by participants and spectators of Scona's Muk-Luk events added atmosphere for the conclusion of an action-packed week—to the Sons of Adam. The students danced up an appetite for our Beef, alias Moose Stew. An added attraction was the opening of Canada Room. In the following basketball game against Vic, the Lords were victorious.

Centennial Blast-Off

Centennial events were inaugurated with Scona's Centennial Blast-Off, appealing to all tastes: folk singing with Verna Semotuk and Wildwood singers, an art display, closed circuit television, movies and a dance with the Sons of Adam. The cheerleaders entertained the throng with an old-time fashion show. At the stroke of ten, the 100 assorted candles were blown out by the surrounding guests. The 3 by 4 foot cake was then cut and served along with a glass of potent home-styled brew. On the whole the evening was an undisputed success. There was a large turnout and everyone enjoyed it. It was a great start to the Centennial year. Centennial here we come!

Fine Arts Night

Under the direction of Mrs. Brine and Miss McFarlane, the music and drama departments combined to present "Fine Arts Night" on December 12 at 8:00 p.m. The programme consisted of two parts: one musical and the other, poetry readings. During the first part, Mrs. Brine conducted the Senior Orchestra and Band and Beginners' Band through classical and Christmas selections, including an excerpt from Camelot. For the second part, "Christmas Notes" was produced by Miss McFarlane and was performed by eight drama students who enacted the different meanings of Christmas, while the Girls' Chorus was accompanied with parts of Christmas Carols.

Everyone thoroughly enjoyed the performance and it was well worth the effort the drama and music department put into it!

The Fine Arts Department of Strathcona High School

Presents

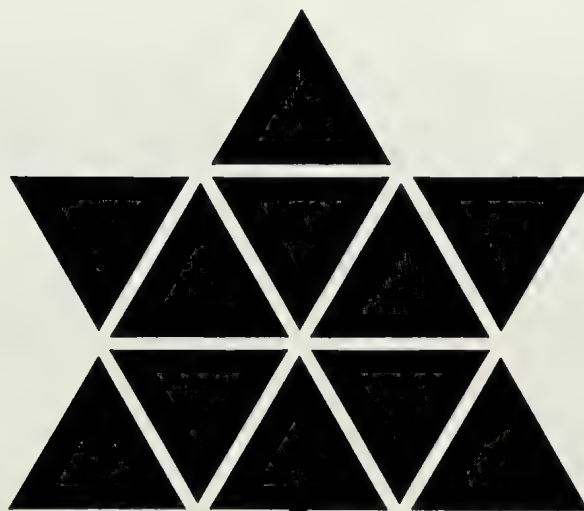

Concert Canadiana

February 27 and 28

On February 27 and 28, the Music and Drama Departments again joined forces to present our Centennial Pageant—Concert Canadiana. It was a night of dramatic sequences, music and dance depicting the growth of Canada—in events and nationalities—that has come about during the 100 years of our Confederation. The orchestra and chorus, under the direction of Mrs. Brine, saluted many of our contemporary Canadian composers and also provided the background for the ethnic dancers of the Physical Education Department. The final part of the pageant consisted mainly of the Drama Department who, under Miss McFarlane's direction, presented many skits on Canada—including a prairie panorama and a description of the building of the Trans-Canada Railway.

We would like to thank all those who took part in the presentation, and all those behind the scenes without whose help the production could not have been possible. Special thanks to Verna Semotuk and Ken Stromberg who enlightened the evening with folk songs and violin solos, and also to the Strathcona theatre-goers who made this night a tremendous success.

SENIOR BOYS' FOOTBALL

The Senior Football Team faired well this season considering the new players which were added this year. Under the coaching of Mr. Gilfillan, Mr. Breitreutz, and Mr. Gorgichuk, Scona Lords finished the season with a 3-4, win-loss record. The team's manager was Grant Siple. The captains of the Scona Lords were Grant Wyton, Craig Roskin, Gord Heffel, and Al McLean. The Lords suffered defeat against Jasper Place, Ross Shephard, Bonnie Doon, and Victoria but these were offset by victories over Saint Joseph's, Queen Elizabeth and Harry Ainlay.

JUNIOR BOYS' FOOTBALL

Despite excellent coaching by Mr. Anderson and Rick Brown, and hard work by manager Harry Venn, the Scona juniors fought through an unsuccessful season. Although they were given good leadership by team captains Pete King and Hugh McColl, the juniors didn't manage to win any games. Towards the end of the season, the team showed promise, and can look forward to a more successful season next fall.

SENIOR BOYS' BASKETBALL

The 1966-67 Senior Lords provided our school with one of the strongest teams in a league consisting of very formidable opponents.

In pre-season play the Lords showed strong offensive as well as defensive ability by defeating N.A.I.T. 59 to 41 and the University of Alberta Junior Golden Bears 46 to 41. After a hectic exhibition series, the team swung into action in the city's twelve team league. The season started off brightly by defeating Harry Ainlay, but the team dropped the next two games to Eastglen and Bonnie Doon. The next nine league games saw Scona go undefeated as they fought to a first place tie with Eastglen and a share of the Queen Victoria Challenge Cup. Probably the most thrilling game of the regular season was against the defending Provincial Champion Victoria Redmen which saw the Vic club go down 58 to 53 at the hands of the Lords.

In the city play-offs their first contest saw them pitted against St. Joe's. The boys won handily by a 62 to 37 score. This advanced them to the semi-finals in which they were upset by their old foe Vic.

Nonetheless, it was a very successful season and thanks go out to Mr. Anderson for a coaching job well done. Special recognition must go out to Bob Morris, top scorer in the league, and to Ric Molstad, third scorer in the league, and top rebounder. Both of these fine players were named to the City All-Star Team.

JUNIOR BOYS' BASKETBALL

The Junior Basketball team, made up of grade 10 and grade 11 boys, was given expert guidance by the coach, Mr. Wright. The team did fairly well, finishing in the top division.

BOYS' HOUSE LEAGUE

This year the boys' house league provided many noon hour activities for Scona's boys. These activities were planned by the Boys' Athletic Council which was sponsored by Mr. Anderson. The position of secretary-treasurer was filled by John Arlette. The presidents and vice-presidents of the houses were: Red: Ed Bridges and Bill Brooks; Green: Sandy Dunn and Mark Hyslop; Gold: Spencer Manning and Cal Lange; Blue: Greg Sims and Brian Stelk.

House league events commenced with football, of which Blue emerged victor. Volleyball, which followed, was won by Green House. In hockey the A section was won by Green and the B section was won by Blue. Red House amassed the most points during Muk-Luk Week. Water polo is still being played.

A new event, the House League Challenge Cup, was introduced this year. Once a month the house who holds the cup is challenged by the other three houses. Challenges have been issued in the form of murderball, broomball, a bike race and a novelty track meet.

Senior Boys' Volleyball

ROW ONE: Don Hickey, Johnnie Anderson, Bill Schur

ROW TWO: Morrie Smith, Sandy Dunn, Ian Wilkie, Allan McLean, Bruce McCollum.

Junior Boys' Volleyball

ROW ONE: Roger Toogood, Drew Bricker, Doug Reid, Dave Rencz, Craig Roskin.

ROW TWO: Mr. Breikreutz, Dennis Ewasiuk, Duane Styles, Kim Falkenberg, Dale Steel

Senior Girls' Volleyball

ROW TWO: Joan Chisholm, Vicki Cox, Pat Kate, Mrs. Current, Nancy Bell, Janet Bell, Karen Leitch.

Junior Girls' Volleyball

ROW ONE: Jeanette Schultz, Debbie Crawford, Karen Adams, Elizabeth Crockett, Brigitte Peter, Darlene Antoniuk.
ROW TWO: Miss Holmgren, Moira Greene, Janet Marshall, Debbie Wainwright, Diane Proudfoot, Brenda Larson, Betty Dehnke.

Senior Girls' Basketball

ROW ONE: Marge Allan, Captain; Lorraine Love.

ROW TWO: Pat Kato, Bonnie Allan, Jean Wilson, Miss Holmgren, Nancy Bell, Lisa Higham, Karen Leitch, Vicki Cox, missing.

Junior Girls' Basketball

ROW ONE: Debbie Crawford, Elizabeth Crockett, Carolyn Ellison, Patti Wilson, Val Bennett, Dianne Proudfoot.

ROW TWO: Brenda Larsen, Karen Adams, Sharon Young, Moira Greene, Brigitte Peter, Shirley Allan, Denise Gibbs, Mrs. Current.

SENIOR GIRLS' BASKETBALL

The Senior Basketball team under the coaching of Miss Holmgren, almost made the semi-finals, but placed third in their conference. The girls played well, and had a lot of fun.

The Junior Girls had a rather rough season amongst tough competition. Mrs. Current, the coach, put a lot of hard work into the team, but although they managed to win a few games, they did not make the semi-finals. The team hopes to stick together and really go all out next year.

The Junior Girls' Volleyball team placed third in their section, earning twenty-eight points. Miss Holmgren, the coach, and Patti Wilson, the captain, worked hard to aid team morale.

SENIOR GIRLS' VOLLEYBALL

After a rather rough start, the Senior Girls' Volleyball team, under the coaching of Mrs. Current, fought hard but were unable to reach the top. Lilli-Anne Molstad was the team captain.

Strathcona's Junior Volleyball team, which was coached by Mr. Breitreutz made a fairly good showing for the small role volleyball plays in inter-school competition.

GIRLS' HOUSE LEAGUE

The girls' house league had an active and varied year. Activities were planned by the Girls' Athletic Council. Mrs. Current was the new and very able advisor. Lilli-Anne Molstad served as president. Bonnie Allan was the vice-president and Marnie Wiber was the secretary-treasurer. The house presidents were: Red: Mary Chapman; Blue: Donna Richards; Green: Liz Garret; Gold: Sandy McCoy.

The annual bike race was won by Blue. Following this Green won the Novelty Track Meet. Green won senior field hockey also. Junior volleyball found Red at the top and senior volleyball found Blue at the top. The Run to Calgary brought another win to Red. The most total points for the week of Muk-Luk activities went to Red. Senior basketball was won by Green and junior basketball by Red. Events which are left are the novelty swim meet, track meet, and bowling and badminton tournaments.

 ROW THREE: Bruce Cameron, George Smith, Mark Hyslop, Ian Kupchenko, Herb McLeod, Wayne Kirkham, Andrew Hyslop, Brian Smith.
 ROW FOUR: Doug Irwin, Stan Combs, Brian Ritchie, Mike Morrow, Randy MacDonald, Tim Mathers.

There is really no need for a write-up on Scona's swim team - its accomplishments are the pride of our school and the chagrin of the rest of the city high schools.

The team, powerful and well-balanced, breezed through six meets, always doubling or tripling the scores of its nearest rivals. The entire team put forth a tremendous effort and gave an excellent showing in the Edmonton High School Swimming and Diving Championships. Outstanding performances were given throughout all meets by Bruce Cameron, Mike Morrow, Pat Kato, the Kennedy Sisters - Betty Ann and Linda, and the Smiths - George, Susan and Sandra. Ed Bridges, Tim Mathers and Dianne Proudfoot did well in the diving divisions.

For helping Scona overwhelm the high school swimming scene and resume its traditional role, thanks go to the coaching of Bruce Cameron.

Table Tennis Team

ROW ONE: Marie Klawe, Linda Rout, Camilla Smith.

ROW TWO: Richard Rout, Wesley Allen, Ralph Hollingsworth, Dave Lloyd, Craig Rutley, Mr. Elford.

Badminton Team

ROW ONE: Johnnie Anderson, Chris Smith, Miss Holmgren, Lisa Higham, Al McLean.

ROW TWO: Spencer Manning, Carol Grierson, Roy Bolton, Jean Wilson, Bill Schur.

AWARDS

1867 | 1967

MAJOR TROPHIES

Wees Trophy

Gordon Wilson

The original Wees Cup, donated in 1929 by Dr. W.R. Wees of Toronto, was replaced several years ago by a new Wees Trophy. It is presented annually to the Grade Twelve student who attains the highest average on the Christmas and Easter examinations.

Gordon Wilson, this year's winner and Class Valedictorian, attained an average of 94.7% on his year's work. In Grade Nine, he was the winner of the Governor General's Award for the second highest standing in Alberta and also a winner of the Gyro Award. During his years at Strathcona, Gordon continued to maintain his excellent scholastic record by being the top student in both his Grade Ten and Grade Eleven years. Besides receiving many academic awards, Gordon has been an active and enthusiastic member of the Science Club.

Griesdorf Trophy

Peggy Cowles

This trophy was donated by David Griesdorf, a former student, and was first awarded in 1928. It is presented to the girl in the graduating class most outstanding for her service and participation in extracurricular activities.

This year Peggy Cowles was presented with the Griesdorf trophy. Throughout high school, Peggy has been an active member of both the Swim Team and the Swim Club. She has been a Major Service Award winner, a room representative, a member of the Centennial Committee, and a member of the committee for "Gaylord's Feast." As President of the Publicity Board, she has been very active in promoting all school functions. One of her outstanding publicity endeavours, an up-to-date bulletin board about "Scona in the News", is an indication of Peggy's exceptional spirit and service to the school.

Scarborough Trophy

The Scarborough Trophy was donated by the Students' Union in 1952 in memory of Mr. Charles Scarborough, a former teacher of Strathcona High School. It is presented annually to a boy in the graduating class. This boy must possess the qualities Mr. Scarborough stood for - outstanding service and academic achievement.

This year's winner of the Scarborough Trophy was Bruce Cameron. He has been an extremely active member of the Swim Team and the Gym Club. Bruce has been the recipient of both Major Athletic Awards and Major Service Awards. During Centennial year, Bruce has been one of Scona's representatives to the City High School Centennial Committee. While offering service in many phases of school life, Bruce has maintained a good academic standard.

Bruce Cameron

Duncan Innes Trophy

Formerly the Home and School Association Trophy, this trophy is presented by the Strathcona Home and School Association to the girl in the graduating class who is a good, all-round citizen and who combines academic performance with a satisfactory record in athletics.

Jean Wilson, who won the trophy this year, has been active on Girls' Senior Basketball, Junior Volleyball and Senior Volleyball teams. She has been a member of the Swim Club and the Badminton Team. Jean has received a Major Athletic Award and a Major Service Award. Besides keeping up a strenuous athletic program, Jean has maintained an Honors Standard throughout her three years at Strathcona.

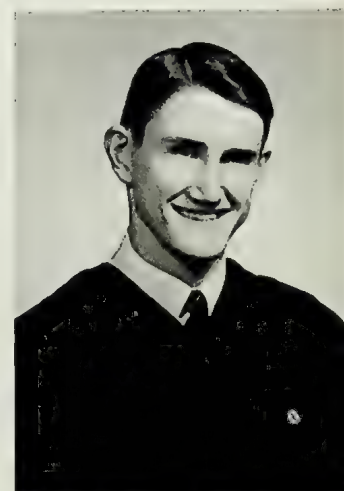

Jean Wilson

Harley-Millar-Sutton Trophy

This trophy is presented annually to the male student of the graduating class who is outstanding as an athlete, as a good student and as a man. It was donated by Brigadier-General B.F. MacDonald in memory of Pilot Officer John William Harley, Flying Officer John Whitla Millar, and Flight Lieutenant Harold Ransom Sutton. These three young men, who attended Strathcona High School, were killed in the last Great War.

This year the trophy has been given to Ian Walker. He was a Room Representative in Grade Eleven and in this busy Centennial Year, Ian has performed the arduous duties of President of the Students' Union in a capable and efficient manner. He has been a member of the Swim Club, the Junior Basketball Team and the Senior Basketball Team. Ian has received Major Athletic Awards, a Major Service Award, and Academic Awards for Honors standing in Grade Ten, Eleven and Twelve.

Class History of '67

As we prepare to leave high school and embark on a new path into the future, we feel we are leaving a part of us behind. We are leaving immaturity and inexperience and taking with us fond memories and a sound foundation for the future. Because we learned the importance of co-operation, our history at Scona has been a fruitful, and eventful one

Three short years ago we entered Strathcona Composite High School and we meekly faced the seniors and a mysterious puzzle of corridors. We were greeted with Frosh Welcome Week which quickly initiated us into the whirl of high school life. Our first school dance was during Frosh Week and then later the boys had a night out compliments of the girls as we dragged our fellows to the Sadie Hawkins Dance. There were football games, basketball games, swim meets, and track meets as we faithfully cheered our teams on through thick and thin. It was mostly thin that year but our honor was salvaged as the swim team won the city championship and the track team captured the Boys' Intermediate Championship. We also studied in Grade Ten, some hard, some not so hard, as we began to feel the pressures of exams and assignments. We showed the capabilities of our class as twenty-eight of us received academic awards that first memorable year.

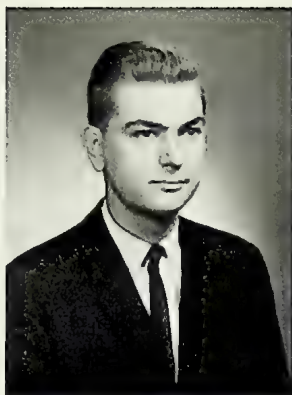

Glenys Robb
Class Historian

Upon our return to Scona for a second year we quickly became involved in almost every aspect of school activities. Grade Eleven was a very busy year for most of us. In the field of sports, our junior boys and junior girls both won city basketball championships. Our curling teams, boys, girls, and mixed, won many prizes and brought honor to Scona in the various bonspiels. The swim team continued in their winning ways and again brought Scona the city championship. Last year marked the beginning of Muk-Luk Week at Scona which is now an annual event. The festivities began with a huge moose meat dinner followed by such thrilling, chilling events as harpoon throwing, tea boiling and nail driving.

This year as masters of Scona we have provided the leadership necessary to make this year one of the best in the history of this school. The house league competitions have provided us with plenty of exercise and the house projects entertained us with the likes of cartoon parties and pizza feasts. We are fortunate in being the graduating class during Canada's Centennial Year and we have proven ourselves worthy of this distinction. The new year began with the Centennial Blast-Off and the plans were laid for Scona's many projects. An historical survey carried out has provided many artifacts for the new Canada Room which is both interesting and informational. Plans are now underway to bring restored parts of Old Scona here and to construct tennis courts and a recreation area in the grounds surrounding our school. The Drama Department presented their centennial projects in the form of Concert Canadiana which was thoroughly enjoyed by all who attended.

As the year draws to a close we can begin to feel the pressure of departmentals upon us. Looking back through our years in high school we can see why they are called "the best years of our lives." We are saddened by the prospect of saying good-bye and yet we are eager to try our wings. Thank you.

High school is a minor crisis in our lives, and graduation, a climax. Graduation is cloaked in sentiment because it signifies the end of high school education. We must use our knowledge to cope with new experiences and alien environments.

Although most of us have only vague impressions of the future, we have distinct impressions of the past. The crowded cafeteria, the patriotic fervor of the football and basketball games, the rush to classes, and the classes themselves have produced a school atmosphere. We have all met friends, developed interests, and discovered new facets about ourselves while we nosed into every corner of Scona's halls. Our education has been a unique experience, because as it transformed us, it transformed itself. We thank Scona's teachers for providing insight to problems and knowledge to solve them.

Our high school days are now almost over, and our whimsical notions will affect a changing world. In this society of "mass everything", the thought of being oneself must appear supremely ridiculous, but we should strive to make our ideas known. Scona has given us a grounding with which we shall decide our future. Let us use it wisely to make stagnation and comfortable mediocrity obsolete.

CONTEST

1867 | 1967

FIRST PRIZE

A Fantasy of Thought

by Maria Klawe

it was a strange dream
a dream of laughing
and of song
and of twinkling streams that trickled down mountains and somewhere in it was a harp
a golden harp
with smiling strings
and music that flowed
in cascades of laughing sound that followed the twinkling streams down the mountains to golden gates
gates
that had a music
of their own
a music of Handel's trumpets martial and military
yet appealing
and the music mingled and became a sonata
and then a concerto
and then . . .
the dream changed
to dark twisting clouds
among cliffs
of churning horror
cliffs that rose to infinite heights closing off all escape
sounds that haunted
with jeering screams
that were made of fire
a fire
of burning flames
of lust and desire
a fire
that caught up all
in a frenzy of terror
strange eerie sounds
climbing scales
yet falling overpowered
with their own intensity and the dream was dark and confounded life was lost
gone forever
it was a strange dream
a dream of life and death of heaven and hell
a dream that had no origin
a fantasy of thought

SECOND PRIZE

The Stormy Years

by Laurie Watson

Running,
Fearing,
Hiding,
Grasping for the sun
And finding only clouds.
Sunshine and wine
And solitude,
Dreams clearing, in the clear sky
Then . . .
Ecstasy

Shivers on my spine,
A quiver on my lips,
Eyes, blinking back passionate tears
Of love and hate,
Bitterness and thankfulness.
Tears, carrying in their downstream course -
Peace

Quiet heart, quiet mind,
Calm wind, clear sky,
Near shore of that distant dream
With the sun docked on the shore.

THIRD PRIZE

Depression

by Barb Morton

Time is my worst enemy.
Life goes on without me.
I am a vacuum.
The world is my cage
Closing in on all sides.
There is no escape.
You are the lock;
You are the key.

Hunt

by Cherry Hayes

The day dawned cold and clear. The sky was hard and grey as flint. Earth and trees appeared brittle in the frostiness of the still air. Every now and then a rook could be heard, shrill in the distance. The hunt was to commence at 8:00 sharp! Already, high-spirited glossy horses were being unloaded from their vans at the starting place. Yawning grooms moved back and forth among them, stamping feet and rubbing hands to ward off the early morning chill. The hounds panted in excitement, snapping nervously at one another. Soon the huntsmen arrived in full dress. The vivid scarlet of habits along with the high-polish of boots, and almost mathematical precision of attire, successfully hid the less noble instincts thriving in every body. The savagery exhibited by the hounds so apparently did not end there, but permeated the entire party and made a socially-accepted sport into a bestial adventure.

The Master of the Hunt mounted. He was an aging sport-enthusiast - a most jovial-looking gentleman, but bloated and overly ruddy from regular weekend binges. The other huntsmen followed suit, and shouts to "Line Up" rang across the field. Horses, hounds, and hunters, waited impatiently with taut nerves and muscles, till a blast from the horn shattered the calm and spurred them into spontaneous action.

A streak of golden red raced through the underbrush, the sight of which sent the dogs into a frenzy. Flashes of brown, tan and sorrel, bounded through the high damp grass, and down sharply-inclined hills. Next came the mounts, plunging through muddy bog, soaring over hurdle, fence, stream, and hedge, and straining to make each turn as it came.

A strong wind cut across the sweating faces of the hunters. For half an hour, rain drizzled down on the gaudy group, then ceased, and the sky broke to expose a faintly leering sun.

Passing through a heavily-treed valley the hounds again caught the scent and bayed and howled alternately, pressing their prey. The pounding of hooves marked the fast advance of the horses. At the next obstacle, a forbidding wooden barrier, the last rider was pitched to the ground violently, with a broken neck.

Still the gruelling race went on with an intense drive and determination. It was not until the sun had passed the vertical that the hounds began to overtake and converge upon their prey. The last horn sounded. This was the moment that the sportsmen had waited for - the finale to a good day's hunt. All bent their energies in the direction of the noises of hound and horn, breathless and tingling.

The fox, driven now into the open space, could not have dragged himself another yard. The will for preservation that had raged in his blood and spurred his young heart on at the beginning was replaced by a blinding panic. Paralyzed with fear, he crouched low to the ground and anticipated death.

A single rider was first to come upon the scene. The dogs were on the fox. He felt pride in its extreme - he had just earned his fourth "brush" Other riders began arriving, disappointed that they had so narrowly missed the climax of a thrilling ride.

The day was passing, and fatigue had set in amongst horse and rider, so that the party started back within a few minutes. The dogs followed in triumphal procession. The light of day slowly died, and the uncomfortable chill of evening set in. All that remained of the hunt was the warm, torn body of one small fox.

FIRST PRIZE

Mother Goose Revised

by Peter Jasper

Mother Goose is a fink! For years her simple, inadequate collection of nursery rhymes has stood as the literary standard for small children, leaving them unprepared for the literature texts they must face in the future. Because of this, alterations of a drastic nature are necessary: consolidating "Mother Goose" into a textbook modelled on those of a higher level. Here, then, is an excerpt from that controversial new book, MOTHER GOOSE IS A FINK.

CHAPTER I: Little Jack Horner

Little Jack Horner
Sat in the corner,
Eating his Christmas pie.
He stuck in his thumb
And pulled out a plum
And said, "What a good boy am I."

EXERCISE

1. What do you think of Jack's table manners? How does this opinion change in view of your own?
2. Give evidence from the poem to prove that Jack is suffering a superiority complex.
3. Assuming that Jack is really such a good boy, explain why he is SITTING in the corner.
4. Write character sketches of: (a) Jack
(b) The Plum

SUGGESTED FURTHER READING

"Etiquette Made Simple" by J.C. Pattison
"What a Good Boy Am I" by C. de Gaulle
Anything by P. Jasper

CHAPTER II: Humpty Dumpty

Humpty Dumpty sat on a wall.
Humpty Dumpty had a great fall.
All the King's horses and all the King's men
Couldn't put Humpty together again.

EXERCISE

1. A great man once wrote: "Stone walls do not a prison make, but they sure help." Apply this quotation to the poem.
2. How does the second line reveal the poet's inconsiderate nature? (Clue: Was the fall "great" from Humpty's viewpoint?)
3. Compare and contrast any one of the King's horses.
4. The King referred to, Claude I, was often called Claude ½, by his subjects. How would this reflect on his intelligence?
5. Give evidence from the poem to prove that Humpty was:
(a) a jig-saw puzzle
(b) the National Medicare Bill

SUGGESTED FURTHER READING

"Scrambled Eggs Super" by Dr. Seuss
Anything by P. Jasper

CHAPTER III: Hey Diddle Diddle

Hey diddle diddle
The cat and the fiddle
The cow jumped over the moon.
The little dog laughed,
To see such fun;
And the dish ran away with the spoon.

EXERCISE

1. What meaning does the first line have? If none, what does this tell you about the poet?
2. What would lead you to believe that Canada had entered the Space Race?
3. Explain, in detail, the problems that the cow will encounter in re-entry.
4. Do you think the last line is merely an animation of a common human occurrence, i.e., the boss ran away with the secretary (dish)?
5. Write a best seller.

SUGGESTED FURTHER READING

"The Principles of Aero-Space Navigation" by W. von Braun
Anything by P. Jasper

Mother Goose was probably not born in 1850. At an early age she showed a tremendous talent for absolutely nothing and was therefore left on the doorstep of Lowelberg University (a school for students whose marks are not high enough for them to go to Heidelberg). She graduated thirty years later with aspirations of becoming a poet. However failure piled upon failure, the strain took its toll, and she was admitted to the famous "Lustigan Bauernhof" in Leipzig. During her long convalescence, she wrote the ridiculous rhymes for which she is famous. She was finally cured and released, but she soon suffered a relapse and spent the rest of her life writing meaningless plays and sonnets under the pen name of William Shakespeare.

Now that the sure Nobel Prize Winner has been presented to the world, I can only sit back . . .

Editor's note: Unfortunately, Mr. Jasper was seated on a stool at this time.

Counterattack on English Teachers

by Barbara Esdale

English teachers are a queer lot - at least my English teacher is. They are always assigning essays with such awkward, and sometimes down-right ridiculous topics. Why, the other day, we were assigned an essay on "Amoebas and Essays". This topic astounded the other pupils - but luckily I have an on-the-pseudopod correspondent - Albert. Albert is my pet amoeba, not just an ordinary amoeba, you understand, but a full-fledged author.

Each year my English teachers are astounded at my exceptionally brilliant essays, but little do they know! Why, I would still be at the "see Jane run" stage if it was not for Albert! Albert has more ideas in his nucleus than most people have between their ears. Because he is a gold mine of information, I keep Albert well hidden. He lives in a little pink pill box (he hates the color but I have not had time to redecorate it yet). Every time we are assigned an essay, I give him the signal to come out. I dress him warmly, for he is susceptible to draught, and then he computes the titles for me in his nucleus.

Now Albert's method of computing astounds me each time I watch. He looks so sweet sitting there, with his little blue cap on his outgrowth, his little red coat buttoned up to his neck, and itsy-bitsy yellow mittens on each of his pods, that I sometimes forget to watch for the computed answer. But he did not waste time when I gave him the topic of "Amoebas and Essays". I listened closely and heard him click each litter through his membrane, then the vacuole, and finally into his nucleus. Then, out came the recorded tape, all ready to put on my miniature tape recorder. From the ideas on the recording, I quickly put a rough draft together and ran it back through Albert. Out came the answer: "Good metaphor in third paragraph, but stick more to the topic - me!" With this in mind, I rewrote my essay. I improved my vocabulary, and shortened the sentence lengths to give a conversational effect. Then, after I had outlined my main idea, that of Albert assisting me with my essay writing, I put my work aside to be finished later.

When Albert's coat was tightly buttoned, we set out to go for our daily walk. Situated on my boot rim, Albert got plenty of exercise running around the brim and ducking the rain drops. His pleasure was soon ended with the sniffing of a canine beast. As I paused to pet this wolf-like thing, Albert accidentally rolled off my boot into a puddle and was instantaneously slurped up by that fanged creature. Oh to be drowned and eaten both in one day! Albert! As I was about to bemoan my loss, the ferocious slurper's owner drew near. My cries of bereavement were cut short!

As soon as I reached home, my tale of woe was recorded on Albert's little recorder. (It was the last time that I ever used it). "Albert, Albert," I cried "now who will help me write my essays?" Now my English teacher would know the deadly truth! I would have to finish my essay by myself, and what can you write about with an absurd topic like "Amoebas and Essays"?
